

VVD New Version 9.5

Author: <>

The new version includes a number of new features, PDF file generator, new report format ....

Some of the new features are listed below:

New built in PDF file generator to enable rapid export of reports to PDF files including table of content. - The user can now freely select any elements to be included in the report and sort the elements in any order.

New Print Preview function

New report layout that also includes graphical elements and tables with borders.

New option to generate a Bill Of Material (BOM) that can be included in the report

New and updated help system

A new option has been added to print all NDT requirements in the report.

A new material library for ASME 2004 Part II-D Metric properties have now been included.
and much more...