

3D Module and Multi Document Interface

3D module.

The new 3D module draws all vessel components and allows the user to easily verify component location and dimensions. When the cursor passes over a component all element data will be displayed, and by clicking on the component the data can be modified.

The multi document interface allows the user to view many data screens simultaneously with any type of information.